THE TOURNAMENT, YESTERDAY .- Columbia Springs was vesterday the focus of attraction for the three cities. From Georgetown and Washington via the steamer Phenix, which ran between Washington and the Long Bridge, and from this city by the Alexandria and Washington Railread, thousands found their way to the scene of the Tournament, which it had been announced would take place at Columbia Springs. At noon, the Cavalcade arrived in this city, and passed through the principal streets. It consisted of a band of music, in one of Latham's coaches, finely ornamented for the occasion, and surmounted by the American flag, the Marshals and Knights, in full dress. After dining at the City Hotel, the Knights rode out to the Springs, and, at 34 o'clock, entered the lists, as follows:

1. Augustus Wall, of Alexandria-Knight of the Old Dominion. 2. Thomas R. Saugster, of Fairfax county,

Va.-Knight of Fairfax. 3. Andrew J. Gwynn, of Prince George's county, Md.-Knight of Marlboro'. 4. Robert Croson, of Alexandria-Knight of Alexandria. 5. James C. Roach, of Alexandria county, Va.-Knight of Virginia. 6. John C. Wilson, of Montgomery county, Md .- Knight of Montgomery. 8. W. B. Bryan, of Prince George's county, Md .- Knight of Prince George's.

9. Joshua Thomas, of Alexandria-Knight of Potomae. Dr. Douglas, of Washington, who drew No. 7, under the eognomen of the Black Knight, was unable to enter the lists, his horse being frightened by the crowd around the lists. The Mayors of the cities being obliged to decline attending by official business, Wm. D. Massey, Jas. Roach, E. S. Plummer, B. H. Berry, S. Heflebower, and Thos. A. Waters, sas., acted as Judges, and in the absence of Goy. Smith, who was too nuwell to attend. the Knights were appropriately charged by B. H. Berry, esq., and the riding commenced under the direction of C. M. Castleman. esq., Col. H. C. Dorsey, and Maj. H. K. Bradshaw, Marshals, the Knights being called by Hugh Latham, esq., Herald. On the trial ride the Knight of Prince George's, alone, took the ring.

In the first ride it was taken by the Knights of Fairfax and Prince George's; in the second, by the Knights of Alexandria, Virginia, Montgomery and Marlboro' and in the third by the Knight of Prince George's who thereupon claimed the award, but the judges decided that there must be a second trial.

On the first ride of this trial, the ring was taken by the Knights of Montgomery and Prince George's, and at the unanimous request of the Knights, the latter, having taken the ring three times in succession, was pronounced the Champion.

On the second ride, the Knights of Fairfax, Prince George's, and Virginia, took the ring; and on the third the Knight of Alex-

It was then agreed to have single rides for the Knighthoods of Honor. On the first of those, the ring was carried off by the Knights of Prince Georges, Alexandria, and and Alexandria on the fourth by the Knight of Alexandria, who was declared 1st Knight

The Knights of Prince George's and Montgomery then contended for the 3d Knighthood of Honor, which the former won on the second trial, both succeeding in the first.

The Knights, &c., were then escorted to the stand and the Champion named Miss Amelia Edelen of Prince George's County, Md., as Queen of Love and Beauty: after which the Knights of Honor respectively named the Maids of Honor, as follows: 1st. Miss Alice Latham, of Alexandria.

2d. Miss Rosa Bowling, of Prince George's County, Md. 3d. Miss Helen Edelen, of Prince George's

County, Md. The company then adjourned to the Pavilien, where the Queen was duly crowned by W. D. Massey, esq., who prefaced the eremony by a brief and elegant address to the ladies. The Knights of Honor placed the coronets upon the heads of their ladies. The ball then began, and continued until 11

The News by the Niagara. Garibaldi's successes are fully confirmed. He attacked Palermo at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 27th, and penetrated to the centre of the city with the tri-color in hand. After a desperate combat of six hours, during an active bombardment by sea and land. the royal troops retreated to the palace and other public buildings. There the combat was renewed, and the palace was taken by the populace, and burnt. The loss in killed and wounded is considerable on both sides, but no figures are given.
